

Sustainable Immunization Financing (SIF) Program mini-course reading list

August, 2013

SIF collaborators, partners, and counterparts are invited to enroll in the first SIF mini-course. The course consists of six required readings and an online quiz. Both English and French courses are offered. The required readings reflect the main areas of SIF work, including public finance, parliamentary functions, theories of institutional change and the history of public health. Readings can be accessed directly from their sources or from the SIF online library. Sabin will provide a username and password to the library upon request. To request access to the SIF online library click here. Those who correctly answer 12 or more of the 15 quiz items will receive a certificate of completion.
